RE: Grievance Appeal

Dear Warden:

I filed a grievance on 12/16/2006 pertaining to Cpl. Stolzenbach retaliation against me for being involved in a lawsuit against him. I initially forward it to your office as an "Emergency Grievance", in which it was subsequently forward to the SCI Grievance Chairman and listed as case #89745.

The grievance was returned to me on Friday 29, 2006 as being non-grievable for disciplinary and classification action. Apparently, the Grievance Chairman do not understand the facts of my grievance.

First. I was found not guilty of any disciplinary action on 12/12/06. There is no need for me to grieve that issue. I only stated the chain of events which led up to the wrong against me by Cpl. Stolzenbach.

Second. I was already classified to a job, and I was not seeking a new job.

The thrust of my grievance is clearly stated. Cpl. Stolzenbach and Sgt. Carmean acted malicious and had a direct retaliatory motive against me for my involved in a lawsuit against him.

The Grievance Chairman erroneously rejected my grievance against the wrongful conduct of staff, therefore denying me the right to be heard under the process that was designed for this type problem between inmates and staff.

Therefore, I asked that you reinstate my grievance, and allowed it to move forward to whatever relief it takes to resolve this matter.

Thank you

GIVE DATES AND NAMES OF OTHERS INVOLVED IN THE INCIDENT OR ANY WITNESSES.

On 12/10/06, Cpl. John A. Stolzenbach filed a false disciplinary report against me and immediately fired me from my classified job because I am a plaintiff in a class-action lawsuit that includes Cpl. Stolzenbach as one of the defendants. (Wilson, et al, v. Taylor, et al, C.A.No. 05-399-JJF) I was found not guilty at my hearing on 12/12/06. On information and belief, Sgt. Carmean asked counselor Donna Furman to immediately classify me out of the merit building on 12/11/06, one day after getting the "bogus" disciplinary report, and before I even had my disciplinary hearing. These actions of Cpl. Stolzenbach and Sgt. Carmean are malicious and a direct retaliation for my involvement in the lawsuit stated above.

ACTION REQUESTED BY GRIEVANT: Cpl. Stolzenbach and Sgt. Carmean actions. To immediately be re-instated to my job for the wrongful firing by Cpl. Stolzenbach, and to not experience any adverse or retaliatory measures by any DOC employee for me using the inmate grievance procedure.
